

Notice: New Lost Port Pass Fee Beginning July 1, 2016

To address Transport Canada concerns relating to the number of lost Port Passes reported and encourage better safekeeping of this government credential, the Vancouver Fraser Port Authority is implementing a new recovery fee for a replacement lost Port Pass.

Please refer to the Vancouver Fraser Port Authority's 2016 Fee Document for more information: portvancouver.com/about-us/port-fees/

Effective July 1, 2016, the fee for a replacement lost Port Pass is as follows:

Item	Fee Amount (incl. applicable taxes)
First lost Port Pass	$60
Second lost Port Pass	$100
Third lost Port Pass and each lost Port Pass thereafter*	$150 plus interview with Vancouver Fraser Port Authority*

Please note:

- Lost Port Pass fees are applicable over the five-year life of the Port Pass.
- The Lost Port Pass Fee will be collected prior to receiving a replacement pass.
- Other administrative charges relating to the reissuance of your Port Pass may apply – please contact your Port Pass publishing agency for further information.
- For the third lost Port Pass and each lost Port Pass thereafter within a five-year period: An interview with the Vancouver Fraser Port Authority will be required in addition to payment of the $150 fee. The Vancouver Fraser Port Authority will collect statistics during the initial year of implementation of this initiative to determine if additional non-monetary measures are warranted after July 2017.
