

Name: _____

What happens at the Port of Vancouver

Pre-visit predict and draw activity

Vancouver is a port city and a port is a place where ships load and unload cargo. In fact, the Port of Vancouver is the largest port in Canada and handles more types of cargo than any other port in North America.

Activity

Draw a picture of what you think happens at the Port of Vancouver. Use your memory or imagination. If you don't know, make a good guess.

1. Your drawing should have _____ different features.
2. Use labels to identify the main features of your drawing.

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for the student to draw their prediction of what happens at the Port of Vancouver.

Name: _____

What happens at the Port of Vancouver

Post-visit summary drawing activity

Describe what you learned about the port on this page.

Choose ONE of the following methods:

1. Sketch the port in detail (label your drawing).
2. Record your thoughts in point form.
3. Write a descriptive paragraph.

What is the most interesting or memorable thing you have learned about the Port of Vancouver?

Name: _____

What happens at the Port of Vancouver

Post-visit summary drawing activity

Draw a picture of what the port might look like in the future.

1. What could the ships, trucks and trains look like?
2. Are there new types of transportation available?
3. What kinds of cargo are being shipped and received?

Your drawing should have _____ different features.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the student to draw their vision of the future port.