

North Shore Waterfront Community Liaison Committee

Annual report - 2022

Committee Overview

The North Shore Waterfront Community Liaison Committee is a mechanism for communication and dialogue about port-related matters on the North Shore. It brings together North Shore municipal, industry, Indigenous and community partners to discuss developments, identify concerns, provide suggestions, and facilitate two-way communication about port transportation and operational issues on the North Shore.

Committee members

Community representatives

- Doug Ausman, City of North Vancouver
- Liane McKenna, City of North Vancouver
- Natalia Skapski, District of North Vancouver
- Vacant, District of North Vancouver (role previously served by Kathy Heise)
- Joseph McDaniel, District of West Vancouver
- Christine Oberti, District of West Vancouver

Indigenous representatives

- Carleen Thomas, Tsleil-Waututh Nation
- Gerald Schlseiger, Squamish Nation

Municipal representatives

- Natalie Roizman, District of West Vancouver
- Neonila Lilova, District of North Vancouver
- Siobian Smith, City of North Vancouver

Organizational representatives

- Lisa Dooling, Neptune Terminal
- Karen Obeck, Seaspan
- Gerry Heinrichs, BC Terminal Operators Association/Richardson International
- Tyler Banick, CN Rail
- Cliff Stewart, Vancouver Fraser Port Authority

Key topics discussed

The committee met four times in 2022. Key discussions throughout the year included:

- Continued business updates from all representatives
- Recruitment process for three new community representatives in 2022
- North Shore Wastewater Treatment Plant tour
- Active vessel traffic management system and port optimization initiatives

Presentations

Presentations that the committee received over the year included:

- Vancouver Fraser Port Authority's Port optimization initiatives – Early engagement
- Metro Vancouver's North Shore Wastewater Treatment Plant Project
- Enhancing Cetacean Habitat and Observation Program overview
- Royal Canadian Marine Search and Rescue overview
- MONOVA: Museum of North Vancouver – exhibit tour/presentation

Outreach

Together, with contributions from Vancouver Fraser Port Authority, CN Rail, Neptune Terminals, Seaspan and Richardson International, the committee supported donating $2,500 each to the North Shore Neighbourhood House and Harvest Project.

Events

In summer 2022, the committee toured the construction site for Metro Vancouver's new North Shore Wastewater Treatment Plant Project.

